Message from the Headteacher

Dear Parents/Carers,

Happy New Year! I hope you all had a lovely Christmas and a good break. It is lovely to see the children return, safe and sound, and ready to learn. It will be a busy term and I look forward to seeing the children grow in their knowledge and understanding as well as in their personal wellbeing. As always, if you have any concerns, please see the class teacher in the first instance. Many thanks, Jon Stevens.

Important Information

Please see the dates for 2019 below. They are on the school website, as are all newsletters. If any changes are made, you will be informed via text message.

Staff Training

All school staff received Safeguarding training on the INSET day this week, which included training on Prevent. In brief, Schools have a duty to prevent people from being drawn into terrorism which includes Islamist extremism and far right extremism, where there is a vocal or active opposition to fundamental British values. Any instances of this will be reported to the appropriate authorities.

An information leaflet for parents has been sent out to explain what this is. If you have any questions regarding Prevent, please make an appointment to see Mr Stevens or Mrs Rogers.

Attendance for this week is:
97%

Whole School
Target: 97%

Well done to Class 1/2CL
For getting 99% this week.

Parent/Governor Meetings

Last term, we introduced a morning session where parents can meet members of the Governing Board and talk to them about their role in school as well as anything that parents wanted to raise. As there was a minimal response from parents, we have decided to move the time of the meeting to 5pm, so that working parents can have the opportunity to attend as well. Therefore, the next opportunity to meet Governors is on Wednesday 16th January at 5pm in the upper hall. All parents/carers are welcome.

Bromley Bees

Every Wednesday morning
9.00am – 10.15am

All welcome to come along and join the fun!

Safeguarding

The designated Safeguarding Leads at Bromley Hills are: Mr Stevens (Headteacher) and Mrs Rogers (Deputy Headteacher). In their absence, the deputies are: Miss Collins, Mrs Morris & Mr Kelly. The safeguarding leads are responsible for any child protection issues. A reminder that it is our duty to share safeguarding concerns with other agencies.
